

Chamber Prexy Appoints Area Directors to Board

Five Torrance businessmen have been appointed by Chamber of Commerce president Harold G. Frenz to serve one-year terms on the chamber board of directors. The nominations were approved by the full board at an Aug. 22 meeting.

The five, along with a director-at-large, a north Torrance area director and a northwest Torrance area director to be appointed later, will serve with 15 elected directors on the governing board of the local chamber.

THE RESIGNATION of A. E. "Tommy" Thompson, manager of the Mobil Oil refinery and past president of the chamber, was accepted at the board meeting. Thompson has been transferred to the Mobil plant at Augusta, Kans. W. B. Jameson, manager of works for the Bethlehem Steel Corp., was appointed to fill the vacancy created by Thompson's resignation.

Approved by the board for one-year terms as area directors were: John Lowe, manager of Sears, Del Amo, representing the Del Amo area; Jim Post, owner of the James Post Co., for downtown Torrance; Chris Sorensen, owner of the Sorensen Realty, for Hollywood Riviera; Jack Rogers, owner of the Jump 'N Jack, for Southwood; and Martin Denn, owner of the Denn Co., for Walteria.

Area directors for North Torrance, Northwest Torrance, and a director-at-large remain to be appointed.

HAROLD G. FRENZ, Bank of America, is president of the board. Others officers include James Hall, attorney, first vice president; Don Hyde, Columbia-Geneva Steel, second vice president; Art Woodcock, CPA, treasurer; and W. E. Skawger, California Rubber Products, past president.

Board members elected recently for full three-year terms are William Belding, Broadway Del Amo; Jos Doss, Mayfair Creamery; William Greenwalt, So. California Edison Co.; Bill Jameson, Bethlehem Steel; Fred W. Mill, National Supply Co.; Jack Phillips, Paramount Builders Supply; and George Post, California Bank.

Also on the board are R. S. Pyle, Pacific T & T; Kenny

New Oak Park Now Showing

Opening of the second unit of Oak Park Estates, semi-custom, quality homes near 228th St. and Figueroa, has been announced by builder Everett Powell.

The new homes, featuring a wide choice of elevation and floor plan combinations, will be near the new Carson High school which is being constructed about two blocks away.

Uyeda, Kenny's Nursery; and James Weigel, Security First National Bank. Jerry Dunn, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, will sit as an ex-officio member of the board.

Styled after the popular Oak Park Estates constructed at 222nd and Normandie earlier this year, the new unit features such popular items as built-in ranges and ovens, cedar shake and wood shingle roofs, forced air heat, kitchen hood and exhaust fans, sliding glass doors, and other luxury styling items.

To reach the new homes, drive three blocks east of Figueroa on 228th St.

Camino Faculty Member Prepares New Chemical

Jack C. Hileman, El Camino College chemistry instructor, recently synthesized the compound technetium carbonyl, which is the last missing member of the manganese sub-group carbonyls.

Hileman, currently on leave from El Camino College, is engaged in graduate studies in chemistry at the University of California at Los Angeles. He is supported by a National Science Foundation Science Faculty Fellowship.

The chemistry instructor prepared the new technetium compound under the direction of Dr. Herbert D. Kaesz, UCLA chemistry department, and was assisted by fellow graduate student, Dale K. Huggins.

THE JOURNALISM of American Chemical Society reported Hileman's work and was placed in the national scientific news spotlight when reported to the Chemical and Engineering News. Hileman will present a paper to the Division of Inorganic Chemistry of the American Chemical Society on Friday, Sept. 8, as a part of the 140th national meeting of the ACS, in Chicago.

During Hileman's year at UCLA he has been appointed visiting scholar and elected to Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemistry fraternity. He will continue his graduate studies on a sabbatical leave next year at the University of the Pacific where he will participate in a program of new teaching methods of college chemistry developed by Dr. Cobb of Stockton College.

DURING HIS work at UOP, Hileman will continue his investigations in inorganic chemistry in cooperation with Dr. Frye of the Pacific chemistry faculty.

Hileman has been a member of the El Camino College faculty for 11 years and is a graduate of Ventura Junior College. He received his Bachelor's degree from the University of California and his Master's from the University of Southern California.
